LOCATION

GPS Address: 75 Stackpole Road, Somersworth, NH

Somersworth originally began as a mill town, starting with gristmills and sawmills. In 1822, the brothers Isaac and Jacob Wendell of Boston purchased a gristmill for $5,000 with its water rights at the Great Falls. They established the Great Falls Manufacturing Company, a textile business that expanded to include three mills for spinning thread and weaving cotton and woolen fabrics. Today, Somersworth is a city with a proud history and a bright future. Conveniently located an hour north of Boston and just minutes from Portsmouth, NH, Somersworth is a great choice for buyers who want a historic town with accessibility.

Why choose Somersworth?

- University of NH located in our backyard along with the growing and vibrant Great Bay Community College in Portsmouth with their new local training center provides an educated workforce that embodies the New England work ethic.
- Big city amenities such as national retailers, public transportation and easy access to major highways, airports and hospitals with the convenience and feel of a small town.
- Abundant NH outdoor activities nearby including the highest mountain peak in the northeast, 18 miles of coastline and crystal clear lakes providing a quality of life that consistently ranks NH as one of the best place to live, work and play.
